Our school's annual Expo – "The Spectacular" was another highlight this month! Students of all grades came together to present their innovative projects, exploring fascinating topics in science, technology, and art. From chemistry experiments to digital coding, the Expo showcased the incredible potential of our future scientists. Our students even showcased their entrepreneurial skills by organising food and accessory stalls.

The first intra-school Theatre fest was held in our campus where students performed extraordinary short plays, mime acts and dramas with a great competitive spirit. HISP emerged victorious, winning the overall trophy.

CONSTITUTIONAL DAY

Every year on 26th November, we celebrate Indian Constitution Day, and as a student, I feel it's an important reminder of what makes our country strong. The Constitution is like the rulebook that guides how India works. It gives us our rights—like freedom of speech and equality—and also teaches us our duties as citizens.

When I learned that Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and many others spent years writing it, I realized how much thought went into making India fair for everyone. Celebrating this day helps young people like me understand the value of democracy and why we must respect the laws that protect us.

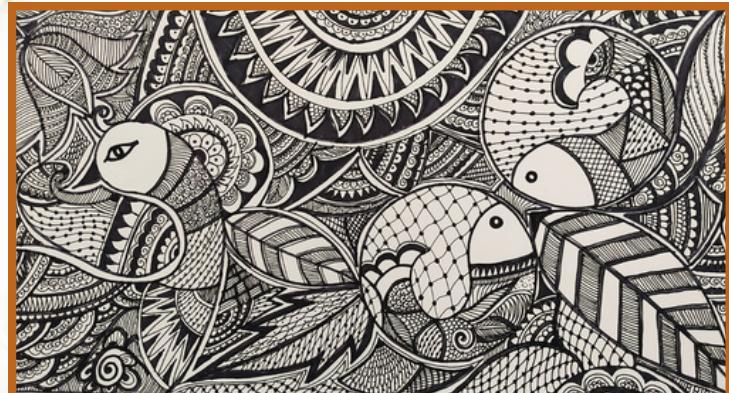

For me, Constitution Day isn't just a school event; it's a chance to appreciate the freedom we enjoy and to promise that we will help build a better India.
