FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Readers,

As October unfolds, we are enveloped in the festive spirit that brightens our days. In the spirit of Diwali, our school organized a fund collection to share joy and support those in need. Our students took the initiative to deliver these contributions to local orphanages and old-age homes, spreading happiness to those less fortunate.

The Diwali celebrations were marked by grandeur and enthusiasm as we proudly showcased our rich culture through skits, dances, and songs. Dressed in vibrant outfits, our students celebrated joyfully with friends and teachers alike.

Additionally, we hosted a Dandiya night for students and parents in our Golden Jubilee Hall. The evening was filled with dance, games, and delicious snacks, making for a wonderfully organized event.

These gatherings not only provided a platform to display our talents but also helped us forge connections and create lasting memories.

WE ARE ONE

The world we live in is full of different people. We come from different families, follow different traditions, and speak different languages. Even though we are all different, there is one thing that connects us – our humanity.

Being “one” means standing together, caring for one another, and respecting every person around us. When we work together as a team, we can achieve anything. Just think about our classroom – when we help our friends, share our books, and support each other, we make learning more fun and meaningful.

Unity is strength. When we are united, no problem is too big, and no challenge is too hard. Even in nature, we see this lesson – a single drop of water may be small, but many drops together make an ocean. In the same way, each one of us may be different, but together, we make the world beautiful and strong.

Together, we can make our school, our country, and our world a better place to live in.
