HGI starts school in Padappai

The Hindustan Group of Institutions (HGI) has established Hindustan International School (HIS) in Padappai to provide a contemporary learning environment that integrates academic excellence, technology, creativity, sports, and values-based education.

Theodosius Mar Thoma, Metropolitan, Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church, inaugurated the campus.

In his speech, he underscored the importance of education rooted in values, character, and compassion in shaping responsible global citizens.

Anand Jacob Verghese, chairman of Hindustan Group of Institutions, said, "We believe education must go beyond academic achievement to nurture character, creativity, critical thinking and a sense of purpose. Through this campus, we aim to create an environment where every learner is encouraged to explore their potential, embrace innovation and grow into a responsible global citizen while remaining rooted in strong values."

The campus features smart classrooms, robotics and computer laboratories, composite science laboratories, innovation and maker spaces, and dedicated sports infrastructure.

Two books were released: one curated by Anand Jacob, 'Journey of Parables', a collection of reflections centred on leadership and values, and a coffee table book, 'Historia', documenting the decade-long journey of Hindustan International School, a release from HGI stated.

Course on Montessori teacher training

The Indian Montessori Training Courses (IMTC), Chennai, will commence their 57th Montessori teacher training Course in August.

The weekend course will have online and in-person sessions, a format designed to suit working women, enabling them to balance work and family while pursuing their passion for early childhood education.

IMTC-Chennai is affiliated with the Indian Montessori Center, Bengaluru, which awards the Diploma to successful candidates.

Over the past three decades, IMTC, Chennai, has quietly supported Tamil Nadu's early-education landscape.

IMTC-Chennai has trained more than 1700 teachers, and over 45 schools in Tamil Nadu have been established by the institution's alumni.
